

NICHOLSONS Club 57

Thursday 14th April

Visit: Hordley Forest School

Leave a legacy in the grounds of Blenheim and contribute to the 200,000 trees being planted in our efforts to mitigate climate change. Be greeted by our foresters and sit around a fire with a glass of wine and learn about our tree planting project and its benefits. You will then have an opportunity to plant your own trees. A hands-on, outdoor experience.

COST: Free of charge. Outdoor clothing required. Refreshments provided.

Thursday 30th June

Visit - Drs David & Jill Edwards, Chipping Norton 'Members family garden'

Surrounded by breathtaking views in the Cotswolds, the 3-acre plot of Drs David & Jill Edwards is open by invitation to fellow Club 57 members. They have lovingly created the garden, which was originally flat and used for barley production, to showcase various components including ponds, greenhouses, vegetable, fruit and cutting gardens. With an ethos of upcycling and sustainability, David and Jill aim to keep waste to a minimum and use reclaimed materials throughout the garden. They would be delighted to welcome you for a tour. Plants will also be on sale for charity.

COST: £10 (includes refreshments)

Thursday 15th September

Talk - Harvesting the Fruits of Your Labour: The joys of fruit trees

Delight in the splendours of seasonal cooking with our senior horticulturalist Libby Reeves, who has previously been a chef. Learn about the produce we have on site at North Aston to produce your own home-grown offerings.

COST: Free of charge for members (glass of wine and nibbles on arrival).

Friday 30th September

Book Signing with Leading Garden Photographer, Clive Nichols

With an array of settings to delight and inspire, this book is a must-have for horticultural and photography enthusiasts.

As our valued customers, we would like to invite you to meet Clive for a book signing and talk about his work and inspirations.

COST: £38

Tuesday 11th October

Yurt Tasting Evening: Sampling the New Season

The Yurt at Nicholson's is guided by the seasons and the menus naturally evolve to reflect nature's bounty. We would like to invite you to taste the season with canapes curated from The Yurt's autumn menu. Accompanied with a glass of wine or soft drink, it's the perfect opportunity to toast the new season and the joys that it brings.

R.S.V.P is essential to guarantee your place as well as notifying us of any allergens.

COST: Free of charge for members

Tuesday 29th November

Wildlife Potential in Our Gardens: Living in Harmony with Nature

Join us in The Orchard Barn at Nicholson's on Tuesday 29th of November for a talk from our resident ecologists, Jo and Natasha, and fellow Club 57 members, Drs David and Jill Edwards. With pragmatic and environmentally conscious advice on promoting nature-rich gardens, this promises to be an informative, inspirational and interactive evening.

Cost: Free of charge for Club 57 members.

1st & 3rd December

Seasonal & Sustainable Wreath Workshops

Melissa, owner of floral studio in Bloxham, Bunch, will be joining us in The Orchard Barn at our North Aston site for seasonal wreath making workshops.

As part of the experience, you will visit The Yurt for a two-course seasonal lunch in The Yurt and a glass of house wine or soft drinks.

COST: £86.50
